2019 North Queensland Agribusiness Futures Forum:
How to Harness Agritech 4.0 to Survive and Thrive

Join Townsville Enterprise for the inaugural 2019 North Queensland Agribusiness Futures Forum as KPMG reveal the findings from the Cooperative Research Centre for Developing Northern Australia (CRCNA) funded North Queensland Agricultural Market & Supply Chain Study.

As the first of its kind in the region, this unique event will provide the North Queensland agriculture sector with an update on the demand trends of key ASEAN markets and the Indo-Pacific Economic Corridor. It will also provide insight into how our region can better position itself to take advantage of these trends through improved efficiencies, productivity and yields, continuity of supply and resultant improved profitability.

Forum Highlights:

- Minister for Agricultural Industry Development and Fisheries (Hon. Mark Furner) will discuss the North and North Western Queensland's contribution to the State's food and agribusiness sector and provide an update on flood recovery progress;
- Michael Guerin, CEO – AgForce: Recovery and resilience agenda targeting North Western Queensland cattle producers;
- KPMG overview of the key findings from the North Queensland - Agricultural Market & Supply Chain Study;
- Priority products and future target markets;
- Product demand insights and export market entry strategies; and
- Hells Gates Dam Project update.
