Welcome to your weekly overview of key QSL news and information.

Marketing Choice arrives in Mackay

QSL Marketing Choice is now available to growers in the Mackay region supplying Mackay Sugar, after the necessary contractual arrangements were finalised yesterday. These growers can now deal directly with QSL for marketing, pricing and payment services for the 2019 Season, but first need to nominate QSL as their marketer by 5 March 2019.

Mossman Growers - marketing update

The planned sale of Mossman Mill means that QSL's new Marketing Choice arrangements with Mackay Sugar do not currently extend to growers supplying Mossman Mill. However QSL is working with representatives of Far Northern Milling Pty Ltd and will release further details around our marketing arrangements in this district as soon as the sale of the mill is finalised.

Come meet Mark

Got a question about current sugar market activity or QSL's pricing products? Our Executive Manager of Marketing and Risk, Mark Hampson, is meeting with growers in our Mackay office this coming Monday afternoon and Tuesday. No need to make an appointment - you're welcome to just drop by for a chat. We're located on Level 2 of the Mackay Canegrowers building, 120 Wood Street, Mackay.

QSL Market Update

Sugar prices began the reporting period at the 13c/lb handle before slowly grinding lower. The MAR19 contract made its high of 13.08c/lb on the Monday, before slipping to its low of 12.37c/lb on the Friday, closing the week at 12.44c/lb. The major driver behind the fall in sugar prices was large scale producer selling which swamped spec short covering.
