MANAGER – Agricultural Collective

The Kalamia Cane Growers Organisation Limited is a membership based organisation providing representational and commercial services to approximately 120 cane growing enterprises in the Burdekin District of North Queensland.

Our organisation is seeking a person with strong customer service focus, communication and administrative skills to join our dedicated team as Manager in our office in Ayr.

The Manager will report directly to the Board of Directors and be the leader of the Organisation's day-to-day services to the Membership. Accordingly, the successful applicant will be required to be the face of the organisation in dealings with members and others whilst managing the administrative, operational and reporting duties of the collective. The manager will also deal with some commercial matters in consultation with the Board. The appointee will also act as the Company Secretary of Kalamia and related entity, Kalagro Limited.

The salary and conditions will be negotiated dependent on the experience and skills of the applicant.

Applications close 30 November 2020
